

Resilient Coasts, Resilient Communities

Petone, 21-23 March 2018

PROGRAMME OF 2018 CONFERENCE:

Wednesday 21 March – at Petone Club

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 8-8:45m | Registration |
| 9am | Pōwhiri and official welcome with deputy mayor of Hutt City Council , David Bassett and Jenny Brash of Greater Wellington Regional Council |
| 9:45am | Minister of Conservation and Land Information, Eugenie Sage |
| 10:30am | Morning tea |
| 11am | Key note speakers:

Dr Iain Dawe from Greater Wellington Regional Council: Coastal dune restoration and protection: A natural hazards perspective |
| 11:40am | Derek Baxter (WCC)
The Wellington City Resilience Strategy |
| 12pm | Lunch |
| 1pm | Regional Roundup (short updates from local groups) |
| 3pm | Afternoon tea |
| 3:30-5pm | Petone Beach field trip |

Thursday 22 March – at Petone Club

- 9am Dr Huhana Smith (Massey University)
*Mātauranga Māori, Art, Design, Ecological Economics
Climate Change Science*
- 9:30-10:10am CRTNZ Project updates (David Bergin and Jim Dahm)
- 10:10-10:30am Aidan McLean, 2017 CRT Scholarship recipient
- 10:30am Morning tea
- 11am Updates by local scientists
- Rob Masters (Greater Wellington RC)
 - Jeremy Rolfe (DOC)
 - Hamish Campbell (GNS Science)
Rock meets sea: geology at the cutting edge
- 12noon Lunch
- 1pm Field trip:
- A visit to Eastbourne coastal reserves, then heading to the Parangarahu Lakes Block to hear about the two nationally significant lakes and associated wetlands.*
- 5pm Arrival at Pencarrow Lodge for dinner
- 6:30pm Conference Dinner at Pencarrow Lodge (extra cost)

Friday 23 March – Fieldtrip.

8:30am	Departure from Petone Club, back of rugby club
9.15am	Baring Head, with the Chair of the Friends of Baring Head, Paula Warren
12.15pm	Return to bus
12.30pm	Lunch at Orongorongo Station
1.30pm	Two options: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pingao weaving with our trustee and Master weaver Betsy Young, or• Hear more about this coastline on a walk to Turakirae Head
2.30pm	Bus departs
3.30pm	Return to Petone.

Disclaimer: Most of this programme will happen as stated. However we reserve the right to change details without notice.